

"God, what is it You want to do through me?"

An Economy of Love

We thank you, Jesus, that you offer us more than we can possibly offer or imagine for ourselves.

When we thirst, you offer us Living Water.
When we hunger, you offer us the Bread of Life.
When the storms of life are raging around us, you calm the waters and offer us peace.
When we lean towards living out of scarcity, you guide us to live out of an economy of love where there is enough for everyone's needs to be met, and then some.

Holy Spirit, come, lead us daily to be people who live out an economy of love for God, neighbor, and self, in gratitude and faithful stewardship as we daily walk in grace and love
with you.
