

“God, what is it You want to do through me?”

A Prayer of Praise for the Fourth Week of Lent

Dear God, we pray that you continue inspiring us to seek greater opportunities in which to worship You and share our generosity with Metropolitan Community Church of Washington DC. With cheerful and humbled hearts we ask, “God, how do You want us to grow our financial generosity within an inclusive Christian community without borders and be a blessing “filled to the brim” for all people? We praise You, our Creator. Amen.

By Clara Carter, Prayer Supporter for the MCCDC Generosity Team, lover of the Upper Room which she often reads aloud at the Noon Prayer Call, and an explorer of various translations of the Bible.
