

"God, what is it You want to do through me?"

Listening to God

Most people have a story of how the pandemic affected them, and I'm no different. I thought my life was good as a Senior Sales Manager in the hospitality industry where I'd spent the last 20+ years honing my craft. Then, out of nowhere, we started getting reports there was trouble brewing in China with a virus and on March 17, 2020....my world as I knew it, stopped. I was instructed to pack up my things, head home and I would be notified of next steps when upper management could provide more details.

Fast forward, November 2021, the world has been in a ball of confusion with COVID-19, never seen unemployment numbers and what is going to happen next. At that moment, I realized I needed to figure out my next steps so I could start praying for the best and preparing for the worst. My prayer was simple...."God, please guide my steps and I will follow....no questions asked. You lead and I will follow, I PROMISE."

Some time passed and one day I heard Spirit say, you are going to be a Life Coach. About a week later, my family member said, "hey, you would be really good as a Life Coach....you ever think about doing that?" Right then and there, I heard God speaking loud and clear. As I'd promised in my prayers, I didn't question it. I started researching the field, put a plan together and moved on it. My ears were open for God's guidance during my space of uncertainty. I will always have my ears, heart and mind open for God because " God will never leave you or forsake you." This has been God's word and it was God's action.

Prayer - God, I cannot thank you enough for the gift of listening. Listening to you in my darkest moments, as well as listening when things are going well. Every opportunity to serve your people, is serving YOU and that is very rewarding. Thank you for guiding my footsteps and walking with me on my journey.
