

Love is Patient Love is Kind

by Jacqueline Lois

Time
I haven't time

How precious time can be when
We remember

Times past
Pleasant times

Times we can't forget
though the time passes
So slowly when we are in pain

To be on time
At the right time
With soft love words
To be late
When it was only the time
that passed by too quickly

I haven't time!
I need more time!

Time to forget
Time to be alone
Time to remember
Time to be together
Time ahead
Time to look forward

Precious time
Make up for lost time
Give me some time
Make up for lost time
Give yourself some time
Make time count

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 1 Corinthians 13:4 (NIV)
