

MCCDC Board Role & Responsibilities

The Board of Directors is charged with the legal, financial, and administrative oversight of MCCDC. Responsibilities include:

- Governance & Bylaws Developing and maintaining the church's Bylaws, subject to approval by the Congregational Meeting and the MCC Office responsible for Bylaw changes.
- Legal & Organizational Stewardship Managing matters related to legal organization, incorporation, and risk management.
- Financial & Administrative Oversight Collecting and disbursing church funds, maintaining adequate records, and providing timely reports to the Congregation and MCC.
- Property & Facilities Management Appointing Trustees of the Buchanan Memorial Building Fund to oversee maintenance and—subject to Congregational approval—the acquisition or disposal of church real property.
